

MERID Presents "Prepping for the EIPA"

-or-

"Everything You Wanted to Know About the EIPA but Didn't Know Who to Ask"

Presented by Tracey Frederick

Sunday, January 10, 2010

9am-5pm

$75.00

LOCATION TBA

Knowledge is power! Come to this informational workshop and learn everything you need to know in order to prepare for both the written and performance components of the EIPA. Learn about its history, application process, testing format, and view evaluation results and practice tapes.

Full refund for cancellations before December 15, 2009. No refunds will be issued after December 16.
Purchase orders not accepted.

Tracey Frederick has been a classroom interpreter for 20+ years in the K-12 setting and is currently Chairperson of National RID's Interpreter in the Educational Instructional Setting (IEIS) member group. She is the former Chairperson of Maine RID's Educational Interpreter group and was a participant in the pilot EIPA testing. A passionate supporter of Educational Interpreters everywhere, Tracey holds multiple certifications: Ed: K-12, NIC, NAD III, and CI/CT.

MeRID is an approved RID CMP sponsor for Continuing Education Activities. This workshop is offered for .7 CEUs in the PROFESSIONAL Studies area and 7 contact hours for Maine State interpreter licensure.

Questions or accommodation requests: Vicki Munro-Ludders at: MissVic777@roadrunner.com

Registration: EIPA Prep
January 10, 2010

MERID Members: $75
Non-MERID Members: $110

Name: _____

RID Member #: _____

Address: _____

Maine License #: _____

Phone: _____

Registration payment payable to Maine RID

E-Mail: _____

Request for Accommodations must be received by Dec. 15, 2009: _____

Send payment to Victoria Munro-Ludders
50 Bonny Eagle Rd. Standish, ME, 04084